Outlanders, in the heat of the summer, We send you greetings well wishes.

Many of the Outlands' wonderful traditions are fast approaching. In the coming months Crown tournament, Stag's Con and Queen's Prize will all be upon Us.

We invite artisans of all levels and abilities to enter either the Queen's Prize or Queen's Whim tourneys. Details are forthcoming in a later article in this Newsletter. Queen's Prize will follow the traditional format of sponsorship and mentoring. We call all Ladies of the Rose, Laurels and Flower's of the Outlands to search out artisans who may be shy or reticent in entering an Art's and Sciences event and sponsor them. Please encourage all to participate and help them by introducing them to others, new ideas and skills, and to documentation. This is not a competition, but a celebration of artisans in the Outlands. In addition to Queen's Prize and as part of the same event, the Queen's Whim will be aimed at bettering our encampments and the enjoyment of being creative. All are encouraged to bring and enter something in these exciting categories.

Stag's Con will have a host of great classes and opportunities for Our officers to be able to learn and teach each other. Locations will be settled soon for both events.

The time to find Our Heirs is fast approaching. The time for letters of intent is even sooner, as We require all letters of intent to be post marked by August 25. We also require that all letters be delivered by mail or in person, no electronic submissions will be accepted. Look to Kingdom Law or your seneschal for the requirements to be acceptable as entrants in Crown Tourney.

The format of the tourney shall be fought single fight, double elimination. The weapon styles accepted in this tourney are sword and shield, sword and spear, spear and shield, great-sword, great-sword and sword, and mace and shield. The spear allowed will be six foot with a single thrusting tip (no butt spike), We are not requiring that weapons styles be matched on the field.

We look forward to visiting Our many wonderful groups and to the trip East to Pennsic War.

May your travels be quick and safe and your events rich with friends and song.

Kingdom Seneschal

Unto the Populace of the Outlands and to all others who read these letters, good greetings this warm August.

Stag's Con and Queen's Prize/Whim at this time is going to be a joint event. I encourage all of the Kingdom's officers to attend so that we may spend a small amount of time reviewing ways to make your office more efficient and possibly more enjoyable. With the Queen's Prize activities, perhaps the officers can show off their not inconsiderable skills in the Arts and Sciences as well. For those of you who are not officers but will be attending for the arts portion, do feel free to 'sneak' in and attend some of the officer meetings. All are welcome to attend any class or portion whether or not they actually hold an office or that office.

At Glory just past, the Knights held a meeting with both Knights and non-Peers to discuss the seven virtues and other topics. One of the virtues is Faith. While we don't typically practice Faith with a capital 'F' as originally conceived, I do believe what makes the SCA different from other organizations, to a great extent, is faith. We have faith in our institutions. That the Kingdom, the Peers, the Populace, the Crown, and even the Board of Directors will act within certain boundaries and parameters. We have 'faith' that the King and Queen shall do the best they can for the Populace. We have 'faith' that the Peers shall act like Peers and shall support their squires, students and, yes, the Populace.

It is when that faith is shaken that we have the most traumatic events in the local group, the Kingdom, or in the SCA. If you have been in the SCA and active for a few years now, you have likely witnessed this fracture of the faith. The issues and arguments often end up sounding a lot like religious disagreements. While I've never given much thought to how this office should be managed from a philosophical view point until now, I believe a major part of my job is helping everyone to keep the faith – to help maintain those boundaries and parameters for all.

Yours, In Service and Faith,
Giovanni

Exchequer

Greetings fellow Outlanders, just a few words from the Exchequers office, Mistress Rosalind of Wells has graciously agreed to be my deputy for the office of Non-member surcharges. Please send all reports and monies to her. Her information is in the OH.

A big HUZZAH and thank you needs to go out to Adam Steadfast, the Barony of Fontaine and the Shire of Drygestan for their generous donations to the Kingdom travel fund. Master Adam held a Templar Torchlight Tournament at Grand Outlandish that brought in an astounding amount of monies from very generous gentles from around the kingdom, and both the Barony and Shire had events to also contribute to the Travel fund. The Shire of Gleann Medonach contributed as well to the general fund, many thanks.

Have a safe and fun summer.
Yours in Service
Yuki

White Stag Principal Herald

The March Letter of Acceptance and Return has been issued by Laurel. Of interest in the Cover Letter for this LoAR were changes to the alternate titles for Queen, Prince, and Princess for Turkish. Results have been posted to the outlands-heralds email list and will be available online at: http://www.sca.org/heraldry/loar/

Crown Tournament once again approaches - if you intend to either enter or be fought for, please be aware of the portion of kingdom law, which covers the selection of heirs. Heralds are standing by to assist you.

It happens to many of us - we start to design our device, and then discover that there is a conflict with someone else's device or badge. It is possible, if the other person can be found and is agreeable, to get permission to conflict with someone else's name or armory, as long as they are not identical. They must provide a hand-signed letter of permission to conflict to you, copies of which are part of your documentation for your submission.

You can issue a letter of permission to conflict to someone else, if they conflict with you. If you are willing, you can also issue a blanket letter of permission to conflict with your armory, which allows anyone to register something similar but not identical to your armory without getting specific, individual permission from you. There are two different levels of blanket permission that you can give, which allow different levels of "similar" to your armory. There is no fee for issuing a blanket letter of permission to conflict. Contact a herald for more information.

Also, several heraldic positions are coming open in the next few months. Please see the outlands Heralds email list for full details if you are interested in applying

Serving Crown and heraldry,
Marie de Blois

Minister of Children

Unto the great populace of the Outlands does Lady Jayne Barber, Kingdom Minister of Children send greetings.

George Reed, V.P. of Operations, SCA, Inc. issued a May 19, 2007 Memorandum expanding the Society Seneschal Policy for Youth Activities to clarify requirements, responsibilities, enforcement, and repercussions for noncompliance. It affects all participants in SCA events and went into effect May 19, 2007, to be reviewed by the Board of Directors. This policy outlines the specific, minimum supervisory requirements for Youth Activities at SCA events and the specific remedies for noncompliance available to and required of SCA officials in charge of events.

The new policy also codifies the requirement for parental/guardian responsibilities for minors that they bring to SCA events and outlines the specific remedies for noncompliance available to and required of SCA officials in charge of events. In addition to the previously existing "Two Deep" Rule, requiring two unrelated adults present for all organized SCA activities for minors, under this new policy, when activities with minors present are out of compliance, the official discovering the lapse will correct it immediately or terminate the activity. All lapses require a report of the incident to the official's superior. Individuals who knowingly violate this policy will be banned from the SCA as an officer in the operations chain via administrative sanctions as described in Corpora Section X and the Uniform Sanction Procedure.

If you wish a full copy of this new policy, please contact me at krege@aps.edu.

In service,
Lady Jayne Barber

Earl Marshall

Well, It's been fun. It has now been over 2 years since I stepped up into this position, and I can say that 95% of it, I would never trade. However at Stags Con, I'll be stepping down from the position of Earl Marshal. It is time for some other views in the office.

I feel some special thank you recognition is in order. Duke Olaf, Baron Haroun, Duke Bela, Graf Hans, Baron Roger, Duke Artan, Sir Lavan, Earl Cathyn, Sir Dennis, Sir Asad and Duke Verron who were always there with advice and encouragement in the office. Baron Giovanni who helped me keep my sanity through some trying issues. Master Gwilim for all his help setting up the handbooks and listening to me trying to figure out better wording, and helping out, and listening. My boss, Duke Hrothgar for his advice on many issues. My Regional, Authorizing and Local Marshals.....This is a BIG Kingdom, and were it not for you....it would be impossible to have anything resembling a consistent marshallate or force...your words made it easy for me. My 2 main rapier dudes, Don Charles and Don Christian kept the fencing running smoothly and helped it start to grow again in our lands. HE Larke, Don Oengus, THL Mordrake, and THL Forrester for their work in the various archery realms, and THL Lorkin for his work with equestrian despite some trying personal times. And my squires, who were always there helping and sometimes doing double duty.

We have been to Wars, and always shown our quota of marshals, and had additional volunteers waiting should they be needed. We had our 20th year as a Kingdom, and showed a great number of participants in all of the marshal activities. We had tournaments, and the fighting was great to see. We had new fighters come in, and be welcomed with open arms, taught and become those that do the welcoming.
I do hope that you give the same great time/advice/fun times to those who would step up next. They'll need it.

Finally, I would like to give a special thank you to my lady and son. THL Kaleriia and Jacob. You gave up a lot that people will never know.

In Service,
Mavrikii

Marshal of Fence

Unto the Rapier Fighters of the Outlands Greetings,

There are two new Authorizing Marshals available. Dona Tatiana Bonacieux in Caerthe and Ld, Saito Takauji in Unser Hafen.

As we move through the hot days of summer, remember to stay hydrated. Listen to your water-bearers. Pay attention to how you are feeling. When putting together fighting doublets a consideration might be to use linen, rather than cotton, as linen continues to breathe when wet. If you are traveling to other kingdoms, wetter than ours, this can be a very important consideration. The higher the humidity the less effective your sweat is in cooling you. Take care of yourselves and have fun.

In Service to the Outlands,
Don Christian St. Claire

Minister of Arts & Sciences

This fall Queen's prize will be upon us and in addition HRM Madigan would like to add a new idea to the day, Queen's Whim. Please read below for further information. We are still in the processes of confirming date and site.

Queen's Prize tourney is a mentoring and learning opportunity for artisans in the Outlands. All categories are welcome and all levels of skills are encouraged to enter. Each entrant must have a sponsor to enter. Sponsor's duties are to aid the entrant in getting heir project completed, introducing them to other artisans/mentors who share their interest, assist with documentation, provide a prize for another entrant at the tourney, and be available to consult with other artisans at the tourney. If the artisan cannot attend, it is the sponsor's responsibility to ensure that the entry get to the site.

1. Each participant must be sponsored by a laurel, a Lady of the Rose or a Flower.
2. Participants do not have to be present to enter.
3. Sponsors must provide a prize for each entrant they sponsor.
4. Documentation is required.
5. Must pre-register to the coordinator by September 29th.

In Addition to Queen's Prize, Her Royal Majesty has declared a Queen's Whim tourney. This is an opportunity for artisans of all levels to come and celebrate making our encampments more unique, comfortable, authentic and less modern in appearance. Please bring simple directions on how it was constructed to share so that all of the encampments in the Outlands can be better for your hard work.

1. Participants must be present to enter.
2. Documentation is not required, but is a encouraged. .
3. No sponsors needed.
4. Everyone is encourage to enter, this does include Peers and non- peers alike.
5. Must pre-register to the coordinator by September 29th

A winner will be chosen for each category by Her Royal Majesty. Here follows a description of the categories for the Queen's Whim. If you would like to enter something that falls outside of them, please contact the coordinator.

1. Equipment you would find in a Medieval Camp: accessories, tools, furniture, tents, awnings, lanterns, cooking tools, etc. Recreations of items used in period. Documentation is strongly encouraged.
2. Methods of disguise: Creative methods of disguising our mundane necessities and luxuries. Cooler covers, light shades, snobberies, chair covers, making the mundane look less obvious. When you walk into a camp what reminds you still of the 20th century? Plastic chairs, brightly colored storage boxes, modern lights that glare, coolers etc. can all be disguised, covered or just made to look less modern. Please bring instructions on how you achieved your project so that others can hide things in their encampments as well.
3. Best Heraldic Display on a Warrior: Persona appropriate or specific garb or clothing that displays the Kingdom colors or ensign. May include incorporation of any personal awards or heraldry. Make something green in the personal style for the fighter, fencer, or archer in your life. These need not be the traditional tabard style. Make something that is cut and sewn in the style that the warrior's persona would have worn under or over their armor. The use of the Stag is encouraged but not necessary and any personal touches relating to the individual's heraldry are welcome.
4. Banners: Display your arms, your Kingdom's arm's, your local groups arms or any combination thereof. May include any persona specific display. Poles or methods of display strongly encouraged. Show how you are going to display yourself in your encampment. Banners, pennants, signs, or gates are all welcome as well as any other creative ways to display who you are, what camp you are entering or which group you belong to. Watch the Outlands list for updates.

As the summer draws to a close, the Shire of Nahrun Kabirun invites all good gentles to join us in merriment and tournament under the tall pines in the high mountain retreat of the southern Outlands.

The morning will open with the heavies taking the list field in a Claymore Tourney--any two-handed sword will do, call it a Claymore and you're in...kilts welcome as well. The rapier fighters will head up into the meadow to defend the flock during the Claymore Tourney. The Shepard will guard the Clann's sheep with rapier, while dagger-armed wolves try to pick unsuspecting sheep out from under their watch.

Afternoon will feature THE CLANN WAR--heavy fighters will be separated into Clanns, and the Clann with the most points worth of sheep in their corral at the end of the battle (1 hour res) will be victorious. Bring your gauntlets as the sheep prefer sitting in their pasture, and you'll need a gauntleted hand to carry them to your Clann's corral. While the Clanns battle in the high meadows, the Guard Azure will duel in the list field to determine who will become their Captain.

Throughout the day there will be archery Royal Rounds and IKACs, as well as our Roving Shoot, Flying Critter Shoot, and Night Shoot. Also, there will be a team shoot this year, period bows against open bows; and combat archery, loner bows are available.

During the day, there will be various A&S classes on offer (see website for details) and build-a-bear and catapult-making contests for the young and young at heart. The evening will feature a potluck feast (please bring an appetizer, side dish or dessert to share), followed by the traditional boisterous reveling.

The site includes RV parking (no hook-ups), water, and limited electricity. Fire restrictions are always determined at the last minute. Restaurants, laundromats, and hotels are less than 5 miles away in Ruidoso. If you plan to stay at a hotel, we suggest you make reservations as soon as possible. The weather is comfortable (70s) during the day and cool at night (40s) with a chance of rain.

Notes: Fire Restrictions: http://www.ruidoso.net/forestconditions/ (for the current fire restriction info)

There is a Winery on site. Special Event Parties are being scheduled in consideration of this. Please note that there are limited areas where drinking is allowed on this site. Licensing Rules are enforced here. We will post places and times for parties at a later date and on line.

The Site The Holy Cross Abbey was built in the 1920's as a Gothic Style Chapel and Abbey for the use of the local monks. Later it became a boy's school and orphanage. As more youngsters called the Abbey home more buildings were added to the grounds; dormitories, a gymnasium, an eating hall/cafeteria, sports fields. Plenty of parking was added too. This facility commands a breathtaking view of the local mountains and peaks.

The Library within the Abbey is the old Main Hall and Dinning Room for the monks. Hand made wooden tables are still in use in this room from when the monks first made then almost a century ago. This room is seldom used now and will host our Feast and Courts.

This is a site like no other in the Outlands. We hope that you will make an attempt to see it for yourself.

Please join us in celebrating all the good things that come with the harvest: dancing, merriment, and feasting! There will be games and entertainments during the day, like bottle jousting, a bells and pillows tourney, and a bardic corner. Feast will be served in the early evening and plenty of dancing will follow. The feast will be a 3 course meal served in period fashion with recipes from 14th century Anglo-Norman cookbooks. Due to the service-intensive nature of the feast, there will be a maximum of 72 seats available. The deadline for reservations is September 1, 2007. Your reservations must be paid for by then. A very limited number of seats will be available at the door, so make your reservations early. Bring your feast gear and table decorations, but no candles please. The site is wet. But please, no glass containers outside of the building. There is no smoking within 100 feet of building. But there is a nice stand of trees and benches that will be designated the smoking area. No animals allowed except service animals.

Pas d'Armes
Date: September 22, 2007
Sponsored by: Incipient Canton of Readstan
Location: Dekovend Park, Littleton, CO

WHEREAS it is the bounden duty of Knights and gentlemen-at-arms to keep their skills honed at the ready should His Majesty call them to battle, and whereas the Noble and gentle ladies of the land are desirous to be entertained by the feats of honor, it is the privilege of the incipient Canton of Readstan to invite all those of noble comportment and lineage to test their mettle on the field of combat. Please join us on the Feast day of Saint Maurice, Patron Saint of Swordsmiths, Infantrymen, Dyers and Clothmakers.

The specific contests will be announced in next month's newsletter. This is a formal event, and the best and most courteous demeanor is required of all who attend. There will be a Grand Processional as well as a Helm Display, when the Ladies of the Gallery will inspect the helms and determine if the combatants are allowed to enter the lists.

Duties of the Combatant: To fight for the honor of a Lady of the Gallery, to comport themselves in a chivalrous and honorable manner, to engage the services of a Herald and adorn said Herald in a tabard with their arms, to hide any mundanity upon their person, and to display their best tournament armor and banners.

Duties of the Ladies: To be the grace that inspires greatness, to attend to the contests so they may collectively determine the most valiant and most chivalrous, to call to task those who have displeased and to compliment good deeds.

Duties of the Heralds: To speak truly of the great prowess of their employer, to assure the combatant is correctly entered into the lists, and to issue challenges as directed, in their most eloquent manner.

More details forthcoming. Inquiries may be sent to Countess Matilda Seton at dwso21@aol.com, or 303-263-2179.

Greetings and Well Met!

Come and rediscover the love for your persona! Or, discover a brand new one! We will have so many different things for you to learn and do that everyone will learn something new about the wonderful world that is the SCA, whether you have been a member for a day or 20 years. You can see an updated class and activities schedule at: www.unserhafen.org to know what to prepare yourself for!

We will also have heavy fighting and fencing tourneys, kids' stick horse races and kids' boffer tourneys! (All outdoor activities are weather permitting, and archery will take place at a separate location, but we will have maps at the church.) We will also have dancing, a heraldry table, a fashion show, and Court at the whim of Royalty present.

And now for the requests from the church: Please, respect the school, the sanctuary and the church's wishes. Do not go into either the school or sanctuary, or you will be asked to leave. And this is a dry, dry, arid site. This is on school property-hence, federal law prohibits any alcohol on site. If you bring it, you will be asked to leave with it. However, there will be an after revel at the autocrat's home, and the autocrat's home is as wet of a site as you would like to make it, provided you are over the age of 21.

Directions: Take I-25 to exit 257B. (This is the exit for Loveland and Greeley.) Take US-34 East towards Greeley. (Aim away from the mountains!) Continue on this road for 13.9 miles and do not take the 10th Street overpass. Once you hit 35th Avenue, turn right, and the church will be on the left, after the cemetery and next to Trinity Lutheran School. (And please remember, that in Greeley, streets run East and West, and Avenues run North and South, and that the numbers decrease as you head North and East.)

Theme: 15th Century France - a time of many changes for France and despite wars and plague, there is happiness! The latter part of the 15th century The Lady and the Unicorn tapestries were commissioned by the La Viste family. They depict the 5 senses and Love. This years 12th Night will embody elements that will titillate your 5 senses and let's not forget LOVE. Come and be prepared to See, Hear, Smell, Touch and (let's not forget the feast), Taste. Of course "A mon seul desir" (meaning: "to my only desire"), will play an important part. Mistress Mirianna and Mistress Gabrielle are working on creating the six tapestries, which will hang in the hall. There will still be room for your banners, so please bring them to hang in the hall alongside the tapestries.

The Feast will be at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. The tables are ROUND and seat 8. Feast is limited to the first 200 people. There will be off-board seating.
